Join us for Clovis High's heart-warming production of Little Women. This story centers around Jo March, who isn't your typical Victorian lady. She's headstrong, ambitious, and determined that one day she's going to be a great American novelist even if she must defy societal expectations in order to do so. This adaptation of Little Women is a brand-new version that honors the spirit of the original, while freshly interpreting it for a modern era. Join us for this charming tale at the Dan Pessano Theater on the Clovis North campus. Performances are May 2nd and 3rd as well as the 9th through the 11th at 7:30 pm with 2:00 pm matinee performances on Saturday May 4th and 11th. Tickets can be purchased online on the CHS website or by scanning the QR code on the poster!
